The Enquirer.

PUBLISHED BY THOMAS BUTCHER, OPPOSITE THE POST-OFFICE.—AT FIVE DOLLARS PER ANNUM.—FORTHMAST IN ADVANCE.

RICHMOND, TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1806.

[Vol. 3]

The article on the page contains various advertisements, notices, and other announcements. Here is a summary of the key points:

1. Valuable Property for Sale: Property in Loudoun County, Virginia, advertised for sale.
2. Horses for Sale: Several horses are listed for sale with various prices and details.
3. Negroes for Sale: Slaves are advertised for sale in various locations.
4. Foreign Intelligence: Updates on European and international news.
5. Holidays and Festivals: Notes on special days such as New Year's and Christmas.
6. Local Events: Information on local events and community gatherings.
7. Legal Notices: Court notices and legal announcements.

The page also includes advertisements for various goods and services, including clothing, hardware, and livestock. The language reflects the style of early 19th-century American newspapers, with a focus on community news and local commerce.
The Enquirer.

[Article content here]

George White.

[Article content here]

Communication.

[Article content here]

Rumours of a Change of Government.

[Article content here]

Burying a Civil War.

[Article content here]

For Sale.

[Article content here]