

SALISBURY AS A REFORMER.

Willing That a Part of the House of Lords be Chosen by the People.

A FORECAST OF THE LIBERAL PLAN.

Some of the Official Bills to be Considered at the Coming Session of Parliament—The Irish Bill.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Lord Salisbury will be in Edinburgh on Monday in reply to the address which Lord Rosebery presented at the Scotch Club, a speech, as a member of the Carlton Club, credits the reformer with the title of 'the greatest of the age'.

Another scheme which Salisbury's name is advanced as an alternative to the principle of a House of Peers, partly elective and partly hereditary, is that of a House of Lords, the members of which shall be elected by the people, the remainder being hereditary peers.

Mr. Ellis, member of Parliament for Merionethshire, the Government whip, gave a glimpse of the official session of Parliament at the address to his constituents.

PERISHED WHILE THEY SLEPT.

At Least Sixteen Guests of Seattle Hotel Burned to Death.

SOME GHASTLY SCENES PRESENTED.

The Charred Bodies of an Entire Family Found in One Bed—The Death List May Increase.

SEATTLE, WASH., Oct. 27.—The people of this city were horrified to-day by a hotel holocaust, which overtook the Seattle Hotel, which was burned to the ground.

The following is a list of the transient guests, as shown by the register taken from the burning building:

W. J. L. Johnson, J. M. McDonald, C. L. Gibson, George J. Moon, Redmond T. Schmidt, George Bethell, C. L. Bellan, John McNeil, Albert C. Williams, John McNeil, John Kingston, C. M. G. Decker, Port Blakely, A. G. Butler, a brother of the deceased, and a young man named Edward Havlin, badly injured about the head and back by jumping from the burning building.

SOME GHASTLY SCENES. The saddest sight of all was found in the inside room, off the passageway, which led to the street.

FOR GAMBLING, NOT SPORT.

Horse Racing in New York and New Jersey Not What it Once Was.

Now Controlled by Gamblers.

James R. Keene, the King Pin in New York, has been arrested by the police.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Special.—It is a well-known fact that the horse racing industry in New York and New Jersey has been largely controlled by gamblers.

The present time when it is known that the race track people have been engaged in an open warfare with the State authorities.

When the amendment has gone before the people, the race track people have undertaken an open warfare with the State authorities.

Their attitude in this matter is due to the fact that the race track people have been engaged in an open warfare with the State authorities.

These rooms were running wide open in defiance of law, but no one interfered with them. Peter De Lacy was the king pin in the gambling business.

The Arlington pool-rooms thrive for several years, but were suppressed by the State. The movement against them was not on the part of the State.

Withers and his associates determined to get a law passed which would give them a legal right to sell pools.

A system of betting by correspondence, as it is called, has arisen as a result of the suppression of the pool-rooms.

Officers Installed. A large party of Odd-Fellows accompanied Past Grand Master Thomas N. Kenner and Special Deputy Grand Master.

The great social event in Baltimore will be the Big Six Night, November 5th. The Baltimore and Annapolis steamboat companies have promised low rates to Baltimore for the week of the Horse Show.

At drug store, cigar store, and restaurant, the Big Six Night is a key West cigar, and take no other.

THE GROWTH OF THE BUSINESS.

The business of conducting race tracks has grown to such proportions that it is now a serious matter.

THE GROWTH OF THE BUSINESS. The business of conducting race tracks has grown to such proportions that it is now a serious matter.

APPROVER OF CLEAN RACING. In New Jersey the people have for generations been interested in horse flesh and approved of clean racing.

BALTIMORE, MD., Oct. 27.—Special.—Public sentiment in Maryland is growing in favor of laws prohibiting betting on horse races in the State.

THE MARYLAND LAW. It prohibits betting on horse races except where the races are run.
